Tkcetera Continues 10 Months of Thanks Initiative by Volunteering at Local Soup Kitchen

Orange County Technology Services Provider Prepares and Serves Food at Someone Cares Soup Kitchen

ORANGE COUNTY, Calif. – March 28, 2012 – On March 16, as part of its 10 Months of Thanks initiative, the Tekcetera, Inc. team joined forces with the Someone Cares Soup Kitchen in Costa Mesa, Calif., and other volunteers to prepare and serve food to local, hungry residents. Known for its dedication to doing what it takes to provide comprehensive and cost-effective technology services to businesses small and large, Tekcetera launched its 10 Months of Thanks initiative as a way to say thank you and give back to the Orange County community that has supported it for the last decade. Following a February toy drive to benefit the Children’s Hospital of Orange County, the Tekcetera team fed its passion for giving back by serving food to those in need. Through the next eight months, the team will be found ‘Walking for Wishes,’ offering free computer training workshops, participating in beach clean-up efforts, sending care packages to military troops, making monetary donations and much more.

“By getting out in the community and working with organizations like Someone Cares, we are constantly reminded of how grateful we are for the support we have been provided throughout the last 10 years,” said John S. Pitts, founder and president, Tekcetera, Inc. “For me personally, volunteering at the soup kitchen was particularly enjoyable, as it combined my love of cooking with my desire to give back to the community in a meaningful way.”

For the last decade, Tekcetera, Inc. has provided reliable, cost-effective infrastructure solutions, cloud services, managed IT services, Microsoft specialty consulting, Avaya and Cisco telecommunications, web design, ecommerce solutions, and more to businesses throughout Orange County. The Santa Ana-based technology company is celebrating its 10-year milestone anniversary by giving thanks. The company’s 10 Months of Thanks initiative will culminate at a hosted reception during the month of November, appropriately around the Thanksgiving holiday.
